Shale D. Stiller

Shale D. Stiller is the President of The Foundation. He was a partner with DLA Piper Rudnick Gray Cary LLP, one of the five largest law firms in the world, where he was the chair of one of its major departments and practiced in tax, corporate, estate planning, litigation and nonprofit law. He continues as counsel to the firm as well as an Adjunct Professor at the University of Maryland Law School, where he is entering his 44th year of teaching. Mr. Stiller also serves as an officer and board member of the Johns Hopkins Institutions and of several other major foundations, including The Leonard and Helen Stulman Foundation, the Haron Dahan Foundation, The Charles Crane Family Foundation, The Shelter Foundation, The Hittman Family Foundation and the Bright Star Foundation. He has also served for many years as a national vice president of The American Jewish Committee. Mr. Stiller received an LLB from Yale Law School and an MLA from Johns Hopkins University. He is a member of the American Law Institute and Order of the Coif, and is the author of many articles and texts on legal subjects.

Alvin Awaya

Alvin Awaya received his CPA certification in 1969 and worked for a national CPA firm before starting his career with Harry Weinberg in 1974. He has been an officer and director of the various Weinberg-owned companies for the past 32 years and continues to manage and direct the Hawaii real estate operations and activities of HRT, Ltd. and its affiliated companies: Honolulu Limited, 300 Corporation, 3900 Corp., Gutman Realty Company, and The Harry and Jeanette Weinberg Foundation, Incorporated. In addition, Mr. Awaya has been serving as a trustee of The Harry and Jeanette Weinberg Foundation since 1990. He is a member of the Hawaii Society of Certified Public Accountants and the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

Donn Weinberg

Donn Weinberg earned his B.A. degree in 1975 from The George Washington University, where he double-majored in Philosophy and Communications. He earned his law degree in 1978 from The University of Baltimore School of Law and served as Editor-in-Chief of the school's Law Review. In law practice from 1978 through 1992, he specialized in general civil and medical malpractice litigation. In 1993, Mr. Weinberg joined the Foundation as its corporate counsel and soon thereafter was elected as an officer and director of the various Foundation-owned real estate companies. On August 1, 2002, he succeeded his father, Nathan Weinberg, as a Foundation Trustee and was elected Vice President of the Foundation. In that capacity, Mr. Weinberg focuses primarily on grant making and the Foundation's real estate portfolio. A resident of Owings Mills, Maryland, Mr. Weinberg has served on many boards in the past and currently is a board member of the Baltimore Community Foundation and of the Institute for Christian and Jewish Studies.

Barry I. Schloss

Barry Schloss brings 38 years of auditing and accounting experience to his service on the board of trustees of The Foundation. After graduating with a degree in Accounting from Franklin & Marshall College, he received his CPA certificate in 1969. Thereafter, he worked as an agent for the Internal Revenue Service, in public accounting with a national CPA firm, and as an accountant for a major retail chain. For the 22 years before joining The Foundation, Mr. Schloss was Director of Accounting and Auditing Services for Gorfine, Schiller & Gardyn, P.A., a CPA firm located in Owings Mills, Maryland. During that time, he provided audit, tax, and consulting services to The Foundation and other charitable and for-profit organizations. Since his election to the board of trustees in February 2005, Mr. Schloss has become increasingly involved with the grant making functions of The Foundation. He is an active member of Baltimore Hebrew Congregation and recently served a term as its president.

Robert T. Kelly, Jr.

Robert Kelly, a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School and the Villanova University School of Law, offers The Weinberg Foundation insight into both law and economics. He also holds a Master of Laws Degree in Taxation. Mr. Kelly is a partner in the Scranton law firm of Myers, Brier & Kelly, LLP, where his practice focuses on tax-oriented transactional planning for individuals and closely-held business entities. He has counseled a wide variety of tax-exempt entities in organizational and operational matters. Prior to entering law school, Mr. Kelly spent several years as a Certified Public Accountant, advising entrepreneurial and non-profit clients. His experience as an advisor to and director of numerous health care providers, educational institutions, social service agencies and private foundations affords him an in-depth understanding of the increasingly complex charitable and philanthropic environment. A resident of Clarks Green, Pennsylvania, Mr. Kelly currently serves on the Board of Directors of Citizens Savings Bank and The Scranton Lackawanna Industrial Building Company.
